THE DAILY CLARION

WASHINGTON ITEMY

SENATE

The Judiciary Committee have had a long session and are still in consultation.

The Judiciary Committee, in the Executive session of the Senate to-day, reported favorably on the nomination of Billings to be U. S. District Judge for Louisiana, vice Burwell, resigned. The Senate remained in Executive session only ten minutes, and

The Senate Committee for the District of Columbia was instructed to consider the propriety of providing for the government of the District of Columbia.

Cragin, of New Hampshire, introduced a bill for the construction of the Southern Maryland Railroad; referred. Discussion on the restrictions of the sale of public lands resumed but gave way to district interest bill, which passed. A resolution giving Sykes, from Alabama, mileage and Senator's pay from '73 to '74 was referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The Louisiana Senatorial xuestion was called just before adjournment and comes up to-morrow as unfinished business when can only be set aside by a vote of the Senate.

HOUSE.

WACHINGTON, Feb. 3-House bills: By Mr. Young: for a custom house at Memphis; referred.

By Committee on Accounts: to pay fourteen Union soldiers on the roll of the House. Mr. Fort, of Illinois, denied there were so many. Messrs. Holman and Williams maintained there were; the bill was adopted.

By Committee on Appropriations: retake charge of Red Cloud Agency; adopted. courts and district United States courts

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the bill allowing heads of departments seats on the floor. The bill for the relief of owners and purchasers of lands sold for direct taxes was referred to the Committee of the Whole. The bill authorizing the United States Court to appoint commissioners to take depositions, affidavits and verifications of pleadings was passed. The President vetoed the bill transferring certain Indian funds from the Interior to the Treasury Department. It was referred to the Committee on Appropriations. Ad-

Legislative Action.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 3 .-- In the Senate as a substitute for the House election bill, there was passed a bill providing for a Returning Board and enabling the Board to count out all votes from districts where any intimidation has been practiced can race, either by personal threats, discharge from employment, etc. All the Democrats and two white Republican Senators voted against the bill and expressed the opinion that its passage would bring on trouble and bloodshed during the next campaign and election. Mr. Sypher, Republican, stated that the Returning Board would be used by Republicans as artillery against the shot-guns of Democrats and White Leaguers. As this bill cannot pass the House, a Conference Committee will, doubtless, be appointed to frame a new bill lhat will be more acceptable to both parties. In the House, the committee to investi-

A Courier-Journal reporter succeeded in having a talk with the prisoners after their arrival at the prison. Albert McGriff was sitting on a smoking lounge with his face buried in his hands, a picture of grief and despair. The reporter touched him lightly on the shoulder, when he started and raised his head; his face looked careworn and haggard, and his eves were suffused with tears. He is sixty years old. He said: "My God, to think that I adjourned without a vote. The vote in the would ever come to a place like this! It commists cannot be ascertained. will kill me! My heart is crushed now!" He spoke with considerable emotion, and was greatly agitated. "If it were not for my wife and son, I believe I could stand it; but to think of the disgrace brought upon them is more than I can bear; it will kill my wife, she is sick now; and this will kill her, but there is one consola-tion; she knows I am innocent of the charge. I swear to you that I am an innocent man;" he said that his wife is 58 years old and that he had been married 30 years.
